

My husband is a truck driver and subscribes to XM. The local traffic and weather on XM is a vital part of his business, as this is his main source of communication and media to the outside world. His knowing what is going on in the local area also makes the roadways safer as he is knowledgeable about his surroundings.